

Partners of Sex Addicts Intensive Workshop

“My spouse went to treatment and I’m left holding the family together—what about me?”

“I don’t know if I want to stay or leave.”

“Is this really an addiction or just some excuse for bad behavior?”

Over three intensive days, we will tackle many of the complex issues related to recovery from the trauma involved with being in a relationship with a sex addict. Educational and interactive, this workshop is designed to empower you to feel more in control of your emotional roller coaster as you struggle with your recovery options.
